CELEBRATE JUNETEENTH AT FIVE SISTERS JUNE 17–JUNE 23

Juneteenth is the oldest nationally celebrated commemoration of the ending of slavery in the United States. Dating back to 1865, it was on June 19th that the Union soldiers, led by Major General Gordon Granger, landed at Galveston, Texas with news that the war had ended and that the enslaved were now free. Juneteenth meals feature foods connecting cooking traditions of the African Diaspora. African American pit masters displayed their barbecue skills while women cooks lovingly created side dishes such as greens and black eye peas that represented prosperity and good fortune. Summer fruits and flowers in shades of red are a special highlight during Juneteenth.

It is with this in mind that Five Sisters is once again offering a selection of Juneteenth features adaptations to honor African American contributions to America's culinary tradition and celebrating Juneteenth, the day all Americans were made free. Five Sisters Blues Café will offer Juneteenth specials at both lunch and dinner service from Monday, June 17 through Sunday, June 23.
