THE FISH HOUSE

FISH HOUSE BEER FEST
SATURDAY, JUNE 14

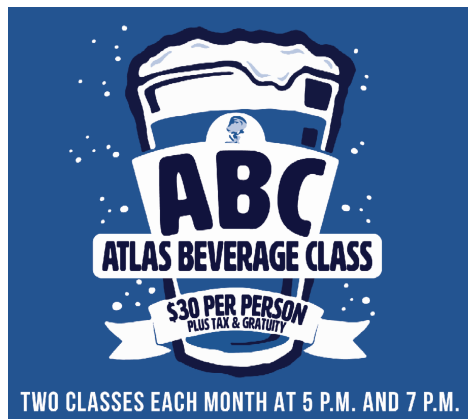

TICKETS ON SALE NOW!

Join us on the Fish House Deck for our 11th annual Craft Beer Fest on Saturday, June 14, 2025, from 3:00 p.m. until 6:00 p.m. We will be featuring over 50 different beers with a portion of the event proceeds benefiting Big Brothers Big Sisters of Northwest Florida. According to the Great Southern Beverage Manager, Dean Clark, "This event is designed to allow the public to taste a large variety of handcrafted beers with an opportunity to sample a number of styles to determine preferences. Beers from microbreweries, craft and specialty bottled beers will be available for tasting. We will also have spirits tables featuring a number of small-production vodkas, rums and bourbons. We love putting on this event because it benefits an amazing cause. Being able to showcase and support not only local breweries, but the beverage community as a whole is so important to us." We will offer a number of local and regional breweries. For additional information, click here.

This is a 21-and-over event and will occur rain or shine. Beginning April 1, 2025, tickets will be available for purchase at the Tackle Shop, our gift and souvenir shop at The Fish House, for $30 (plus tax), or through our online shop. Should there be tickets still available, price will increase to $40 (plus tax) beginning June 1. Day of, if still available, tickets can be purchased at the door. Ticket holders will be given a souvenir beer glass and will have full access to all of the beers and spirits. For more information and to purchase your tickets, stop by The Tackle Shop, visit us online or give us a call at 850-912-6622.

JACKSON'S STEAKHOUSE

NORTHWEST FLORIDA SEAFOOD HERITAGE SERIES

Executive Chef Irv Miller was honored to be a guest chef for the Seafood Heritage Series Event.

The Florida Sea Grant – in partnership with UWF Archeology Institute, UWF's College of Arts, the UWF Historic Trust, Florida Public Archeology Network, Northwest Florida Maritime Landscape Alliance for Preservation, and the University of Florida IFAS Extension, hosted this event in a series entitled the Seafood Heritage Series. The first in this series was an evening focused on the mullet fishery.

Chef Irv Miller featured his classic mullet dip while guests learned about the history of mullet, tasted recipes from local chefs and listened to presentations on the history and ecology of Northwest Florida!

NEW SPRING MENU AT JACKSON'S Friday, April 11

With spring upon us, on Friday, April 11 Jackson's Steakhouse introduces its new dinner menu for the season with distinctive yet classic twists on a number of dishes, including appetizers and entrées.

"For the past quarter of a century, we have been well known for creative cooking, heritage ingredients and steak classics. This spring menu spotlights innovative versions of our Jackson's essential dishes in symphony with utilizing both seasonal local and regional ingredients, including a variety of cultivated wild mushrooms from Play of Sunlight in Tallahassee and Little Stead Farm in Molino, delicious local microgreens from Mission Microgreen Farm, local bread baked by Emerald Coast Bakery, local honey from East Hill Honey Co., along with our favorite Alabama bacon from Bill-E's Small Batch Bacon." - Chef Ir Miller

Our appetizer selections include Jacksons' classics such as: Blue Crab Beignets with spicy garlic chili tartar sauce and lemon; Bacon and Oysters featuring Bill-E's small batch bacon, fried wild oysters, smoky paprika and lime. Try some of our new spring appetizer offerings: Boudin Balls featuring hickory-wood smoked pork shoulder, chicken livers, Cajun holy trinity and spices, garlic, parsley, white rice, parsley, crisp fried with bayou tartar sauce and bread and butter pickles; Bacon and Oysters featuring Bill-E's small batch bacon, fried wild oysters, smoky paprika and lime; 'Horn of Plenty' Tartine with seared Tallahassee farmed black trumpet mushrooms, toasted rustic bread, chèvre, arugula, lemon and extra virgin olive oil, grape tomatoes, BG196 honey and marigold.
