- Sagra del Maiale!

Executive Chef Jason Hughes has teamed up with Executive Chef Ian Gillette of our sister restaurant, Angelena's Ristorante Italiano, to present a family-style Italian pig roast to honor Sagra del Maiale, Festival of the Pig. The annual Italian festival, with roots in Northern Italy, celebrates pork and its dynamic use within traditional Italian dishes.

Both Chef Hughes and Chef Gillette will be on hand to present the tasting - discussing the slow-roast cooking process, including a discussion of the cuts of the pig, how to best prepare each, how to dress the beast for a full roast along with the step-by-step instructions for how to roast including information for your own roaster. Once the beast is complete, it will be offered up family-style and served with a selection of Italian sides including Italian bread service, Bagna Càuda broccolini, crispy fingerling potatoes tossed in lemon-garlic gremolata, served with Calabrian chili aioli. CELEBRATE JUNETEENTH THURSDAY, JUNE 19 THROUGH SUNDAY, JUNE 22

Juneteenth is the oldest nationally celebrated commemoration of the ending of slavery in the United States. Dating back to 1865, it was on June 19th that the Union soldiers, led by Major General Gordon Granger, landed at Galveston, Texas with news that the war had ended and that the enslaved were now free. Juneteenth meals feature foods connecting cooking traditions of the African Diaspora. African American pit masters displayed their barbecue skills while women cook lovingly created side dishes such as greens and black eye peas that represented prosperity and good fortune. Summer fruits and flowers in shades of red are a special highlight during Juneteenth. It is with this in mind that Five Sisters' Chef Josh Rich is once again offering a selection of Juneteenth features adaptations to honor African American contributions to America's culinary tradition and celebrating Juneteenth, the day all Americans were made free. Five Sisters' Blues Café will offer the following at both lunch and dinner service on Thursday, June 19 through Sunday, June 22, 2025. For additional information, click here.

ANGELENA'S CELEBRATES SUMMER WITH A FESTIVE FERRAGOSTO CELEBRATION THURSDAY, AUGUST 21

Angelena's is bringing the flavor of an Italian summer to the Gulf Coast with a festive Ferragosto celebration on Thursday, August 21 at 5:30 p.m. The celebration will feature Executive Chef Ian Gillette's menu of seasonal Italian dishes along with refreshing summer wines expertly prepared by beverage manager, Matt Nichols.

The event honors the rich Italian tradition of Ferragosto with an evening of food, wine, and community. Ferragosto, celebrated mid-August, is a centuries-old iconic Italian holiday that dates back to the Roman Empire. Originally instituted by Emperor Augustus in 18 BCE to mark the end of summer and offer a time of rest and celebration after the hard work of the harvest, Ferragosto has evolved into a summer tradition. Typical Ferragosto food revolves around fresh vegetables, fruit and pastas, in an effort to combat the heat of a mid-August day. The cuisine of Ferragosto reflects the simplicity of summer cuisine in Italy. Dishes are generally quite fresh and refreshing.

Guests will enjoy a multi-course menu that highlights fresh seasonal ingredients reminiscent of a traditional Italian Ferragosto meal, with drink pairings selected to complement each course. Whether you're an Italophile, a food lover, or simply looking for a unique way to celebrate summer, Angelena's Ferragosto event promises an unforgettable evening.
