FIVE SISTERS' BLUES CAFÉ

HONORARY STREET DEDICATION

We had the privilege of having a front row seat to the honorary street naming for the late Reverend John Powell – the guardian of the Belmont-DeVilliers neighborhood.

Rev. Powell was an instrumental force in elevating the neighborhood into something so incredibly special while preserving its significant and rich history. We will always be grateful for his dedication to not only the neighborhood but the community of Pensacola as a whole. With this dedication, his legacy and love for Belmont-DeVilliers will live on.
